Normative Assessment of the ECJ Reasoning

Wednesday 17 April

13.00-14.30, Panel 1:
Chair: Xavier Groussot
  Takis Tridimas, Teleology, Imaginative Reconstruction and Effectiveness
  Joxerramon Bengoetxea, Quality of the Judgments of the ECJ: Coherence v Efficiency
  Dorota Leczykiewicz, The CJEU's Relationship with Law: Challenging the Interpretation Framework

Discussant: Gian Marco Galletti

15.00-16.30, Panel 2:
Chair: Luigi Lonardo
  Sara Iglesias Sanchez, Legal Reasoning in Citizenship Cases: Activism, Minimalism and Self-restraint
  Niamh Nic Shuibhne, Between Precedent and Reasoning: How does the Court deal with its own Previous Case law in the Field of Union Citizenship?
  Alezini Loxa, Insiders, Outsiders and the Fictitious Limits of Analogous Interpretation in the ECJ Case Law
  Araceli Turmo, A Critical Examination of the ECJ's Use of Previous Judgments in Legal Reasoning

Discussant: Nathan Cambien

17.00-18.30 Panel 3:
Chair: Marja-Liisa Öberg
  Emily Hancox, The Case for Lex Specialis and Lex Posterior as Guiding Principles of Interpretation
  Luigi Lonardo, Rosneft had Already Spilled the Oil: Legal Reasoning in Common Foreign and Security Policy
  Alexandros Politis: The ECJ's "Secondary Legislator Approach" in Interpreting Primary Law

Discussant: Panos Koutrakos

Thursday 18 April

9.00-10.30, Panel 3:
Chair: Alezini Loxa
  Davor Petrić, Values and the Interpretation of EU Law
  Luke Spieker, Substantive Hierarchies in EU Primary Law: Towards an Interpretation in Light of Article 2 TEU?
  Susi Forderer, The Court's Legal Reasoning on the Principle of EU Member State Equality

Discussant: Anna Zemskova

11.00-12.30, Panel 4:
Chair: Luigi Lonardo
  Annegret Engel: The CJEU's Centre of Gravity Theory in Legal Basis Litigation: A Flawed Concept
  Nathan Cambien: The Reasoning of the Court of Justice of the European Union under Institutional Constraints: the Example of EU Competition Law
  Menelaos Markakis: The Reasoning of the Court in the EMU

Discussant: Graham Butler