

EU Law Discussion Group

SEMINAR SERIES | Spring 2024

February 2, 12.15 – 13.15

Ellen Eftestøl (University of Copenhagen)

Does the commercial agency directive apply to ship brokers? or The EU Emission Trading System and its expansion to Shipping

Room: 4th floor meeting room (Tryckeriet) and Zoom

March 20, 12.15 – 13.15

Béatrice Schütte (University of Helsinki/University of Lapland)

Regulating AI in the EU

Room: 4th floor meeting room (Tryckeriet) and Zoom

April 5, 12.15 – 13.15

Tamar Khuchua (University of Luxembourg)

The EU's judicial system with the focus on the newly established Unified Patent Court and its potential relationship with the CJEU

Room: 4th floor meeting room (Tryckeriet) and Zoom

April 15, 12.15 – 13.15

Christian Franklin (University of Bergen, Centre on the Europeanization of Norwegian Law (CENTENOL))

The Norwegian social security scandal and the impact it has had on the perception of EU and the EEA in the Norwegian society and the legal system

Room: 4th floor meeting room (Tryckeriet) and Zoom

May 8, 12.15 – 13.15

Nathan Cambien (University of Antwerp)

EU Law in Times of Crisis

Room: 4th floor meeting room (Tryckeriet) and Zoom

May 29, 12.15 – 13.15

Rebecca Zhan and Sylvie da Lomba (University of Strathclyde)

Post-enlargement (free) movement in the EU: who really counts as EU CITIZEN? understanding Danothrough the lens of Orientalism

Room: 4th floor meeting room (Tryckeriet) and Zoom

The seminar starts at 12.15, respecting an academic quarter, and involves 20-30 minutes of presentation, followed by 15-30 minutes of discussion, whereas the room for the discussion is provided up until 13.15. Where the events take place in a hybrid form an invite with the link will be sent out beforehand to the Faculty.

FACULTY OF LAW

For people outside the Faculty of Law at Lund University who wish to participate either on site or digitally please register your participation by replying to this email.

Faculty members, graduate students and all interested in EU law are most welcome!

Convenors: Agné Oseckyté and Sarah de Heer

Senior Members: Dr Petra Gyöngyi, Dr Aurelija Lukoseviciene, Dr Anna Zemsanova and Dr Alezini Loxa

Feel free to forward this flyer to anyone who might be interested.

The EU Law Discussion Group is kindly supported by the Lund University Centre for European Studies